

What you can expect from us

Cumbria Constabulary, Cumberland Council and registered social landlords work with the Local Focus Hubs and other partner agencies to ensure appropriate action is taken. We can also offer you a range of support and advice including:

arranging a visit (if needed) with you

advising you of your rights and responsibilities

involving you in the development of an action plan

allocating a specific person to manage your case

carrying out regular reviews with you of action taken referring you to a mediation service if necessary

Everyone has the right to live peacefully in their home.

Stamping out... Antisocial Behaviour

How can you help resolve antisocial behaviour where you live?

Help us help you by reporting any issues that concern you to the police, local authority or social landlord.

We would like you to keep records of any incidents of antisocial behaviour in the area. When relevant information has been recorded, it can be reported in a number of ways:

Cumbria Constabulary

Visit www.cumbria.police.uk, click 'Report' at the top of the page and then the 'Report antisocial behaviour' option.
